Walking Directions to Brinkhous-Bullitt

NC TraCS is located in the Brinkhous-Bullitt Building in between the hospital and the School of Medicine.

From the Dogwood Parking Deck, take the skywalk (from Level 2 on the far right) across Manning Drive (or exit the parking garage on the ground level and cross Manning Drive) toward N.C. Memorial Hospital. Enter the hospital through the N.C. Memorial Hospital entrance and turn left. Walk past the Children's Hospital/information desk and Terrace Café. The main information desk will be on your right at the end. Turn right past the desk and walk down the hallway around to the elevators (do not take the escalator) and go to the 2nd floor.

After exiting the elevator, turn right and walk straight ahead to follow the signs towards Cardiac Cath Lab. After several turns, an overhead sign points left to Cardiac Ultrasound. Stop here and turn right to exit the building through the double doors.

The Brinkhous-Bullitt Building is directly in front of you. Enter and walk through the cafeteria to the next set of double doors. Go through the first set and turn right to go down the hall. Take one of the 3 elevators on your left to the 2nd floor and you will arrive at NC TraCS.

* Please allow 15-20 minutes for parking and walking. Dogwood Deck is a pay-lot with a rate of $1.50 per hour (daily maximum: $10.00). Note: Construction on the new UNC Medical Center Surgical Tower is currently underway and may cause delays due to changing traffic patterns and re-routed pedestrian traffic.
